

Ana Villanueva

Co-founder & CEO Iberia Tiko

Ana Villanueva is a Spanish serial entrepreneur who has launched technology-based startups. Prior to Tiko, Ana launched operations of Jobandtalent in Mexico, starting the company from scratch and leading it to cash flow positive in less than two years. She also worked for six years at strategy consulting (Booz & Company, Arthur D. Little).

Currently, Ana is co-founder and CEO Iberia of Tiko, the instant Buyer that is revolutionizing the Real Estate in Spain thanks to the use of technology.

Madrid has been the first Spanish city where this service was launched at the end of 2017 with a great reception. So much so that 10% of the purchases made in the capital pass through their hands.

Apart from leading the expansion of Tiko in Spain, Ana remains very active within the entrepreneurial ecosystem in this country where, among others, she is a mentor in Google for Startups. As for her education, she is formed at the prestigious Massachusetts Institute of Technology \(MIT\), where she had the opportunity to found her first startup.